

mage, or if we should not perform it, we will immediately do full justice to all the complainants in this behalf.

LXIII.

No man shall be taken or imprisoned upon the appeal of a woman, for the death of any other man than her husband.

LXIV.

All unjust and illegal fines, and all Amerciaments, imposed unjustly and contrary to the law of the land, shall be entirely forgiven, or else left to the decision of the five and twenty Barons hereafter mentioned for the preservation of the peace, or of the major part of them, together with the foresaid Stephen Archbishop of Canterbury, if he can be present, and others whom he shall think fit to take along with him ; And if he cannot be present, the business shall nevertheless go on without him ; but so that, if one or more of the five and twenty Barons aforesaid be plaintiffs in the same cause, they shall be set aside as to what concerns this particular affair, and others be chosen in their room out of the said five and twenty, and sworn by the rest to decide that matter.

LXV.

If we have disseised or dispossessed the Welsh, of any Lands, liberties or other things, without the legal Judgment of their Peers, they shall be immediately restored to them. And if any dispute arises upon this head, the matter shall be determined in the Marches, by the Judgment of their Peers ; For tenements in England, according to the law of England ; for tenements in Wales, according to the law of Wales ; for tenements in the Marches, according to the law of the Marches ; The same shall the Welsh do to us and our subjects.

LXVI.

As for all those things, of which any Welshman hath, without the legal judgment of his Peers, been disseised or deprived, by King Henry our Father, or our Brother King Richard, and which we either have in our hands, or others are possessed of, and we are obliged to warrant it ; we shall have a respite till the time generally allowed the Croises ; excepting those things about which a suit is pending, or whereof an Inquest has been made by our Order, before we undertook the Crusade. But when we return, or if we stay at home, and do not perform our pilgrimage, we will immediately do them full Justice according to the laws of the Welsh, and of the parts aforementioned.

LXVII.

We will without delay dismiss the son of Lewelin, and all the Welsh Hostages, and release them from the engagements they entered into with us for the preservation of the peace.
